

The picture above shows the main 'free' space which could be used for a wide variety of artistic rehearsal and performances. It is also a good idea for activities such as Pilates. The altar is in place but this can easily be moved to create an even bigger space.

The picture above shows the main 'audience' space with the pews in place. These too can be moved but not as easily and would require special permission.

If you look at the pattern on the floor, you can see how the two spaces fit together.
